

GENERATION EDUCATION COURSE LIST

These are some of the options that can be used to meet your general education requirements. The courses in green are offered within the Faculty of Environmental and Urban Change. The remaining courses are offered within a different faculty at York and may require students to gain permission from that faculty or department. Please note that not all of the courses will be available every year and in every term, make sure to consult the York U Course Website to learn more.
